FAIR HOUSING IS THE LAW

Federal and State laws prohibit discrimination in the sale, rental, leasing, negotiation, advertising, and financing of housing based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, familial status, marital status, age, disability, ancestry, sexual orientation, source of income or any other arbitrary reason, as well as acts of hatred, violence and harassment.

These laws ensure that people who are qualified for the home of their choosing are not barred from being able to buy or rent that home due to discrimination. This is still a persistent problem in our society. According to the National Fair Housing Alliance, "A conservative estimate puts the number of violations of fair housing law at four million every year" in the United States (Fair Housing Trends Report, 2012).

1866 Civil Rights Acts, 42 U.S.C. §1982; 1968 Civil Rights Act, Title VIII, 42 U.S.C. §3601; Fair Housing Act and 1988 Fair Housing Amendments Act; 42 U.S.C. §3600 et seq. California Fair Employment and Housing Act, Cal. Govt. Code §12955; California Unruh Civil Rights Act, Cal. Civil Code §§51 & 52; Cal. Civil Code §§51.7 & 52

WHO BENEFITS?

Everyone benefits from fair housing; including landlords, tenants, housing providers, owners, home seekers, lenders and realtors. By ensuring that all people have equal access to housing that they qualify for, fair housing creates diversity in neighborhoods.
