Rosemead Joins Fair Housing Foundation Service Area

Long Beach, CA, August 1, 2024: Fair Housing Foundation welcomes the city of Rosemead to the FHF service area making Rosemead the 27th city to receive fair housing services. FHF has been providing fair housing services to the Orange County and Los Angeles County areas since 1964 and continues to grow and evolve with the growing needs of the community.

Rosemead residents are now able to benefit from resources and services including fair housing violation investigations, landlord and tenant counseling on rights and responsibilities, rental counseling services for improving financial health, educational workshops and a lot more. All services, resources and events are free to all residents with properties within the FHF service area. Thank you to the city of Rosemead for entrusting your city to Fair Housing Foundation.

Rosemead will collaborate with FHF by promoting fair housing services. The city will host free landlord/ tenant walk-in clinics, provide FHF with resource tables at key city locations and notify residents of upcoming fair housing services and events. Together, FHF and Rosemead will work towards eliminating discrimination in housing and promoting equal access to housing choices for everyone.
